

Press Release

RDS Services, LLC retained by one of the largest Voluntary Employee Benefit Associations in the nation for reopening

Troy Michigan, June 10th 2017

Today, the RDS Services, LLC organization is proud to announce that George Fox, the National Sales Director and Mark Manquen, President of RDS Services, LLC have signed a contract with one of the nation's largest Voluntary Employee Benefit Associations (VEBA) to conduct that groups Retiree Drug Subsidy reopening. This engagement will potentially recover over $5, 000,000 of additional drug subsidies from the Federal RDS Program for the VEBA and its members. This cash recovery of the subsidy for the VEBA will provide a significant financial benefit for all of the retirees who benefit from the VEBA drug plan.

The development and implementation of this agreement is based upon the VEBA management recognizing the superior Retiree Drug Subsidy recovery capabilities and experience of the RDS Services, LLC organization. Additionally, the VEBA management recognized the fact that Mr. Fox is a published author and leading expert in the Medicare field, with a focus on the Retiree Drug Subsidy program that was enacted as part of the 2003 Medicare Modernization Act.

Mr. Fox was quoted as saying upon signing the agreement with the VEBA:

“the RDS Services, LLC organization is proud to have been selected to conduct the Retiree Drug Subsidy reopening for one of the largest VEBA's in the nation. The RDS Services, LLC staff is confident that our selection to recover the additional subsidies for this VEBA is based on a foundation of experience and prior results.”

RDS Services, LLC is the preeminent Federal Retiree Drug Subsidy Recovery Specialist in the nation with offices based in Troy, Michigan and New York City, New York.
